

House Resolution No. 448

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Sawyer Daniel Breslow of Troop 351 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on February 27, 2005, at the Platte City United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Sawyer through the billets of Patrol Leader, Assistant Patrol Leader, Scribe, Librarian, and Quartermaster; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Sawyer earned him induction into the Order of the Arrow Brotherhood, Warrior status in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, a World Conservation Award, Mile Swim and Snorkeling BSA patches, a National Camping 100 Nights award, and fifty merit badges which are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Sawyer applied the knowledge which he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including Den Chief Training, Junior Leader Basic Training, five sessions at H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation, and a Sea Base High Adventure; and

Whereas, Sawyer completed an Eagle Project which consisted of designing and building a board game table with playing pieces for the Ronald McDonald House in Kansas City to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait which justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Sawyer Breslow during his five-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Sawyer Daniel Breslow, son of Sharon and Bruce Breslow of Platte City, Missouri.
